Story Ideas

The Bed & Breakfast Experience

There is a common misconception that all B&Bs are Victorian homes with a shared bath. Not so... Romantic America publications offer a wide variety of lodgings that include cozy homes on the edge of ocean cliffs, lodges in the mountains, and Victorian mansions in the wine country. Unique architecture styles include Princess Anne, Dutch Colonial, Greek Revival and Colonial Mansions. Many of these homes are part of the rich history of the Southwest and were built by prominent citizens in the 1800s.

Valentine's Day 2015 ~ the problem...

Many people don't plan in advance for Valentine's Day and are surprised to find that many Restaurants, Bed & Breakfast Inns and Hotels have been booked months in advance!

Valentine's Day 2015 ~ the solution

With Valentine's Day 2015 falling on a Saturday, romantic couples can leave the world behind and spend quiet moments in the privacy of their home. Featured in The Art of Romance is How To Prepare A Romantic Dinner At Home with a delightful choices of romantic recipes from B&Bs along the west coast.

Watch a sunset on Saturday and savor a wonderful meal prepared in the privacy of your own home. Romantic music, candlelight, and a fireplace glowing in the background make this the perfect opportunity to plan an excursion to a Bed & Breakfast Inn.

About The Author

Ken Christensen, author, artist and entrepreneur, developed the Romantic America Book Series in 1990 with his first book Romantic San Diego. Over the next 13 years he expanded it to 24 books across the U.S. and Canada.

In 2014, Ken decided to use his graphic design and marketing skills to convert 20+ books to Kindle and promote the romantic America e-pub series with the national media

Media Interviews

A veteran of working with the media throughout the U.S. and Canada for over 20 years, Ken has participated in over 400 interviews with the print, radio and television media. He works closely with writers and producers helping to develop unique and fun story ideas.

Past interviews have included in-studio displays on: • Choosing The Right Rose for the Right Occasion • How to Pack a Picnic Basket • Preparing a Romantic Dinner at Home • Breakfast in Bed

Favourite topics for discussion include: • The Art of Making Love • The Art of Buying Flowers • Sexy Things To Do • Romantic Travel Tip • The Art of Watching a Moonrise • Unique Ideas for Gifts

Taking the interviews a step further, other producers have arranged for live and/or pre-recorded features in romantic country towns or areas throughout the U.S.

Requests for material, articles, and photographs are met promptly and efficiently and can be supplied within 24 hours.
